Printing to UNC Hospitals Printers:

As a reminder you can print patient lists from your iPad to printers in UNC Hospitals. See communication below.

Below are some refreshers on how to access EPIC from multiple devices for all students at a UNC Health Facility. As always we ask that you think about security and safety when handling patient information.

EPIC Web Login –

1. Go to myapps.unch.unc.edu
2. Login with your UNC Healthcare Credentials. (U Number, Password and Passcode from Duo if you are on off-campus wifi)

EPIC Citrix Login –

1. Open the Citrix Workspace Application
2. Enter myapps.unch.unc.edu in the server/web address area
3. Login with your UNC Healthcare Credentials.

Instructions for Citrix Workspace –

Please see our Citrix Setup page for instructions to set up Citrix.

EPIC Printing from iPad – (This is for printing at UNC Health/Chapel Hill campus while on Skynet)

1. Login to EPIC using the Citrix Workspace App.
2. Pull up the patient list you would like to print.
3. Click on Print in the top right.
4. Choose the printer that is closest to your location.
 - Note all hospital printers have a tag with the name on them.
5. Choose the settings that you would like.

6. Click on Print.

7. Your document should be printed within the next few moments.

*Being a UNC Hospital application, the School of Medicine IT department does not have direct access to EPIC and therefore any issues regarding logging into EPIC or the content within should be directed to the hospital IT group – ISD.
